Odd Accidents

the bag had disappeared. Oscar didn't bother to hunt for them.

Mrs. Olen Deatherage, of Springfield, Illinois, knew that some women drivers can make an automobile do some mighty funny things. But she never dreamed she could run over herself, until she did it. Her car spun around after a collision, throwing her out the right hand door. Her body hit the gear lever and shoved the gear from low to reverse. As she fell from the car it backed up over her.

Yes, in these days anything can happen — and does !

Graves Appointed Arkansas Commissioner

GOVERNOR HOMER M. ADKINS OF ARKANSAS HAS NAMED J. HERBERT Graves State Insurance Commissioner to succeed M. J. Harrison who was appointed to the post three years ago.

The new commissioner, a former Arkansas department commander of the American Legion, is a resident of Judsonia. For the past twenty-five years he has been in business in that city as agent of the Missouri Pacific Line and Railway Express Agency.
